Fr. Dupont Assails NEA On Federal Aid

The president of St. Michael's College charged Saturday that "the National Educational Association has closed its collective eyes to anything but benefit to the public schools".

Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., said "I think a lot of the opposition of federal aid to church related schools has been generated by the most powerful educational lobby in Washington, the NEA. I'm afraid its leaders don't see the consequences of closing Catholic schools".

"These consequences", Fr. Dupont said, "are not to be measured only in terms of the number of students that would have to be taken care of it the Catholics closed their schools".

"They must be measured in terms of the training for good citizenship. How anyone can claim that the teaching of religion and the Christian atmosphere in our schools are opposed to good Americanism - after the records of Catholics in the Army, Navy, the Air Force and in political life - this remains a mystery."

"But this claim exists, and the belief is held by many secularists that any religious teaching is bad for growing boys and girls."

"There is a very strong minority in this country working to destroy our Catholic system of education. You can see the effects of their efforts in such things as the Supreme Court decision on prayer, in the defeat of the federal aid to private, secondary and grammar schools, and in the defeat of several other bills in Congress."

Rev. Gerald E. Dupont

"This is done, all on the plea that they would offend against the principle of the separation of Church and State."

Fr. Dupont spoke at a meeting of the Rice-Memorial High School Alumni Association. He lauded Rice for becoming accredited by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Fr. Dupont declared that "Catholic schools must emphasize quality above everything else. Our schools should be better in every way than the public schools - and I mean that the teaching of English, mathematics, science, history, civics, etc. should be vastly superior. Only in this way can we eventually prevail in our fight against those who want only secularistic education. Meet them on their home grounds."

"A school will not be judged - where it counts - by its record of victories in sporting contests", Fr. Dupont said. "We all want to see winning teams, but quality in education is considerably more important than quality on the football field or on the basketball court."

An educator who has served on several evaluation teams, Fr. Dupont is this week at meetings in Chicago with the executive committee of the National Catholic Education Association and of the American Council on Education.

Humanities Dept. Adds Drama Instructor, Resident Artist

by Allan J. MacDonald

The Humanities Department has been expanded to include in its full time faculty a resident artist and drama teacher.

A new course dealing with the history and appreciation of Art is taught by Mr. Cyril Sloane. Mr. Sloane is a resident of Long Island, New York and has attended Princeton and Yale Universities. In addition to having taught at the Brooklyn Museum Art School, Mr. Sloane has also been a member of the faculties of Cooper Union College, and the Joan Morgan School, both in New York, and Goddard College in Vermont.

While in France, Mr. Sloane studied under the guidance of such painters as Leger and Ozenfant. His work has been exhibited in various galleries in the Long Island - New York City area. Most recently, his work has been exhibited for the students of St. Michael's in Alliot Hall.

Mr. Sloane has indicated that, although France affords the artist the most favorable climate in which to work, he is looking foreward to working with the rustic charm of Vermont. Albeit his favored medium is oils, Mr. Sloane has done much work with water colors and charcoal.

There is much speculation in the Humanities Department concerning a future expansion of the Art section. These observers report that the student response shown thus far is most encouraging.

The new Drama section is being headed by Mr. Donald Rathgeb of Rye, New York. A graduate of Notre Dame and Catholic University, Mr. Rathgeb is no stranger to St. Michael's College. For seven years he was connected with Players Inc., which operates the summer theatre here. Upon receiving his degree from Catholic University, Mr. Rathgeb served for two years with the Army Medical Corps at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Following this, he taught at St. Mary's College at Notre Dame. In addition to this, Mr. Rathgeb has been associated with a number of stock companies and has worked with Julie Haydan and Helen Hayes.

Mr. Rathgeb is presently acting as moderator of the newly formed Drama Club. This group is formulating plans of performing several one act plays during the coming year. Special attention is being paid to the work of Ionesco. Mr. Rathgeb is also working closely with the campus English Club in its drama committee.

Although reluctant to be specific, Mr. Rathgeb indicated that the Humanities Department is closely watching the response to the drama section and that the next few years might see St. Michael's as a college with a tremendous dramatic capability.

The more responsible elements of the student body are closely watching the indicated expansion of the Humanities Department with a sense awareness and subdued excitement. St. Michael's College has always maintained that its aim was to produce the "whole man", one well versed in the Liberal Arts. With a resident artist and newly formed Drama section, Michaelman are becoming aware that the total implications of that phrase are to be realized.

Newly-Formed Holy Name Unit Elects Norman Soucy

This year the Holy Name Society will appear as a new Club on campus. With this organization, many activities both spiritual and social will consequently result, thus leaving as large a scope for members as possible.

The Holy Name Society was established in 1274, when it first pursued its primary objectives, namely, the honor and glory of our Triune God and the personal sanctification of its members by acts of love and devotion to the Most Holy Name of Jesus. The secondary objectives were the exercising of the corporal works of mercy.

Today Holy Name still pursues its main objectives, but has added others. At St. Michael's the Society will serve all Masses offered on campus, organize the Marian Day Rally and Liturgy Day and establish Charity Committees to aid in the works of mercy.

It has also been proposed that such social activities as ski trips, ice skating parties, mixers, outings and other get togethers be arranged.

Such a program as this has been decided upon by the Holy Name Society, under the direction of Father Ziter and the officers, Norman Soucy, President; James Larkin, Vice-President; John McDonald, Treasurer; and Thomas Edwards, Secretary. Elected as officers of the Knights of the Altar, they are serving the new society. In this way they hope Michaelmen will be better prepared for the Society in their parishes at home.

Norman Soucy

There will be several meetings in the next two weeks to enable you to attend and become familar with its plans. On October 21, the Holy Name Society will hold orientation for the years '62 & '63.

Annual Retreat Begins Friday

by Jack Howe

The annual retreat at St. Michael's will be held early this year to enable the students to put into practice those resolutions made at the retreat. Two Paulist fathers will give the retreat.

Father John J. Kelley will run the retreat during the weekend of Oct. 12-14. Father Kelley has given retreats at Villanova, Seton Hall, St. Anselm's among other noted Catholic colleges. In addition to being well experienced as a retreat master, he is also head of the Paulist retreat movement.

Father Kelley will be assisted by another Paulist, Father Shepherd.

The retreat will begin at 8:00 Friday evening, with Benediction in Austin Hall for the upperclassmen. Mass will be said for the upperclassmen at 8:00 on Saturday morning and conferences will be held at 10, 12, 3, 5, and 8.

Sunday the conferences will be held at 10, 12 and the retreat will end with a final conference at 2, with Benediction and the Papal Blessing.

The retreat will begin at the same time for the freshmen, only that all the conferences will be held in the Chapel. On Saturday, Mass will be said for them at 7:30 with conferences at 9:30, 11:30, 2:30, 4:30 and 7:30. Sunday Mass will be said at 7:30 with conferences at 9:30, 11:30, with closing exersizes at 1:30.

Confessions will be heard after every conference with four priests in Austin Hall and in the Chapel.

Father Ziter reminds us that a retreat should be "Looked upon as a time of self-examination and resolution" and "like any good business, the more you put into it the more you get out of it."

A seminar in Astronomy for upperclassmen is being formed on campus. Interested students should contact Mr. Norberg before Thursday, October 11. Organizational meeting on Thursday, October 11 in S108 at 7:00 p.m.

Orphans Get New Equipment

by Bob Butler

Thanks to the generosity of the St. Michael's student body and the diligent work of the Arnold Air Society, the children at the St. Joseph's Child Center in Burlington, are now fully equipped with sports gear.

A vigorous fund raising drive on campus sponsored by the Arnold Air Society realized some $200. Football helmets, bats, basketballs, footballs, etc., were purchased and on Thursday, Sept. 27, were presented to the 28 grateful children. The boys, ranging in age from 6 to 12 years, had heretofore been without the benefit of adquate sporting equipment.

Initially responsible for the drive was Eddie Talbot, a SMC junior, who also proctors the children in their recreation hours at the child center. A member of the Arnold Air Society, he put his idea to the group in their first meeting of the year and from there the Air Force boys took over, admirably soliticing the entire campus of all its extra change.

The children are making good use of their new presents as at last report they were seen engaged in a hotly-contested football game.

SENIOR PRIVILEGES

The Student Forum, in its Tuesday meeting, announced certain privileges the seniors will be entitled to.

1. There will be all-night lights in Joyce Hall.

2. Senior bed check has been extended from 11 to midnight during weekdays and from 12:30 to 1 a.m. on Saturdays. Late passes have been suppressed. Seniors may report at 1 a.m. and 2 a.m. during the week and on Saturdays, respectively.

3. The parking lot behind Alliot Hall will be reserved for seniors who have a registered car on campus.

4. Lastly, no written permission will be required from seniors to stay away from campus on weekends. This rule does not apply to the Greater Burlington area, however.

The privileges were agreed upon following a meeting of a faculty board consisting of Fr. Geoffrey I. Keating, Fr. Roger Lacharite, Dr. Cleveland Williams and Dr. Robert Giroux with Student Forum president Pat Bergin and senior representative Robert McGee.

A significant point should be mentioned concerning the faculty board. All of the four members are former Michaelmen who had to abide by even more strict rules and who know about the students' needs and complaints.

President Bergin also announced Tuesday that more meetings will be held with the board to work out on several other privileges. He declined, however, to mention what these are.

These privileges that have just been granted do not mean that seniors are any better than underclassmen. We are all an integral part of this institution, St. Michael's. What this really means is that seniors face more responsibilities now.

They must realize that their response to these privileges will determine whether additional ones will be granted or those just given, eliminated.

Seniors must set the example to underclassmen that they can cope with more responsibility; that they can help to re-create the true Michaelman "image" in the Burlington area which has been distorted by a few isolated incidents, not representative of what Michaelmen, college men from a Catholic institution, really are.

WHAT TIME IS IT?

Some 40 wall clocks can be found in the dorms which comprise the quadrangle on campus. It is remarkable that no two clocks have the same time and none the correct time. This condition has been in existence since the first day students returned from summer vacation and has not yet been corrected.

Whether it be because of the highway construction or some other reason, we hope the clocks will be fixed.

FROM THE LILLY PAD

Think you have troubles?

Then think of the poor student of yesteryear, who lived under the rule that stated: "Under no condition are cigarettes to be tolerated in the institution, and the use of such is considered a serious offense," from an old St. Michael's catalogue. Even worse: "The students are not allowed to speak, except during recreation time." Times have changed!

On the athletic side, mention has been made of "Jim" Hamel, assistant to coach Bill Hammond of the 1920-21 football teams at St. Michael's.

At present, Father Hamel, S.S.E., deserves congratulations on entering his 40th year in the priesthood. We learn of Father's football prowess in the following quote of 1919: "The athletic Board was fortunate in obtaining the service of "Doc" Lawlor as football coach . . . He will be assisted by E.J. Hamel . . . one of the fastest ends St. Michael's ever had." Doctor Lawlor went on to be a prominent eye, ear, nose and throat specialist in Burlington.

Suggestion to the Junior Officer Training School: why not make your noise at the other end of the athletic field (the north end) facing the air base? That would make the campus an easier place to sleep at 6 AM and would also show some consideration to our neighbors on Florida Avenue, adjacent to the college.

Third Floor of Founders' Hall is fortunate in having that talented guitar player, singer and all-around ham, Jim Donald. Jim, a member of the Class of '66 made his first appearance here at the Talent Show during Freshman Week and has also performed at the nurses residence at Mary Fletcher with a friend from UVM. He has been playing with a group from his home town, Ridgewood, New Jersey, for three years.

Last Saturday the Beanie Bounce in Alliot Hall produced some things that you might think interesting.

If my eyes weren't deceiving me, I saw one of my fellow students dancing barefoot on one of the tables. And the twist, no less. Novel anyway. I also found out that I'm not trusted by my classmates. One lad from third floor, Lyons Hall, wouldn't even introduce his date to me, though I begged on bended knee.

We shouldn't be too hard on the members of the Junior Class, responsible for the weekend campus movies. As I understand it, it wasn't their fault that the movie didn't arrive for last Friday's show, but the fault of the distributor.

Kof C Awarded Vt. Membership Plaque For '62

The Father John Verret, council of the Knights of Columbus at St. Michael's College has received a plaque for winning the state of Vermont Membership Award for 1962.

The plaque, given by the Supreme Council in New Haven, Conn., honors the council, which shows the greatest percentage increase in membership over its prescribed quota.

The council's Grand Knight, Arthur Kohler, Waltham, Mass., especially singled out Richard Santora, who is the council's membership chairman. Santora is a senior from Jackson Heights, N.Y.

STUDENT FORUM

by Bill Eagan

The Student Forum buckled down to work in earnest this week. In a lengthy meeting, with a relatively large agenda, two major items were discussed. These items were the approval of club budgets for the first semester and the report of the committee for senior privileges.

The main item of business was the discussion of club budgets. Most budgets were approved as submitted, with only minor changes. The only exceptions were the Modern Language Club and the Sociology Club. These were referred to the Club Status Committee for clarification of status.

SENIOR PRIVILEGES

Mr. Pat Bergin gave the report of the committee for senior privileges. After meeting with a faculty board, the following privileges were announced. The area behind Alliot Hall will be designated Joyce Hall parking lot and will be used by the seniors. Each senior with a car will be assigned his own spot. There will be all-night lights in the senior dormitory.

The bedcheck and weekend rules have been changed for the senior class. All of those over 21, may sign out for a weekend without the usual letter from home. Bedcheck will be advanced to midnight on weeknights and 1:00 on Saturdays.

Late permissions will not be necessary provided the student checks in before the proper time. It should be remembered that these privileges are being granted for a probationary period of one year to test student reaction.

OTHER BUSINESS

Mr. Michael Smith moved that the Junior Class be allowed to hold a dance on October 31, in Alliot Hall. He stated that there are three reasons for holding this dance. It would provide entertainment for the student body, build up the treasury of the class, and announce the Junior Weekend theme. The dance was approved.

A motion to establish a clearing house for rides to the home areas of the students was introduced by Mr. Tim Moynihan. This clearing house would help the students in finding rides and in obtaining riders. This motion was referred to the student welfare committee.

NEW ELECTIONS

The announcement was made by Mr. Bergin that two of the representatives of the Sophomore class had resigned. They were Mr. William Brennan and Mr. Peter Newsham. Elections to replace these representatives will be held October 10. Anyone interested should contact Mr. Phil Rice, the head of the Election Committee.

Mr. Dick Santora reported that the Student Directory was being worked on and that it will be published in a few weeks. Anyone who has not been contacted should see his class representative.

Movies Shown Weekly

This year, as in the past, the Junior Class is sponsoring the weekly movies. As a result of a motion passed in the Student Forum last year, the project is turned over to the third year Michaelmen every year.

The films are run on Friday at 7:30 P.M. and again on Sunday at 5:30 and 8:00 P.M. They provide unique entertainment for the students at a reasonable price, 35¢. Films are shown in The Playhouse which can accommodate approximately 300 students.

Such motion pictures as "Come September", "Operation Petticoat", "The Searchers", "It Started in Naples", "To Hell and Back", and "The Geisha Boy" will be shown. Also there will be many award winning films such as "Stalag 17", "Lust for Life", and "Home From The Hill".

These films are selected according to the tastes of the average college student. They feature such actors and actresses as John Wayne, Natalie Wood, Robert Mitchum, Kirk Douglas, Cary Grant, Tony Curtis, Rock Hudson, and Lee J. Cobb. The discerning Michaelman will also see performances by such superb actresses as Sophia Loren, Gina Lollobrigida, Marilyn Monroe, Jane Russell and Sandra Dee. The pictures and stars listed are only a sampling of the more than 20 motion pictures which will be shown this year.

In addition to the above films, there will be cartoons and shorts at most of the performances. In co-operation with the Arnold Air Society, the shows each week will feature a serial on the history of the Air Force. This is an interesting series for all in this modern space age.

Construction Of Residence For SSE Priests Underway

by Frank Ceplenski

The erection of a new priests' residence has begun on campus.

The building is being constructed on the north side of Alliot Hall adjacent to the Ryan Hall parking lot. The brick building, which will house approximately 22 priests and brothers, is to be built along the same modern style as the other campus buildings.

Its form will be that of a "T", the crosspiece facing east toward College Parkway. This extension of the building will be a one story section and will contain the main entrance. Perpendicular and connected to this will be a two story structure containing most of the residence rooms. There will be a sheltered walk from this wing to the fathers' dining room in Alliot Hall. Other facilities of Alliot Hall, such as the chapel, will also be easily accessible by the priests.

The new residence became inevitable as a result of the recent loss of the four barrack dorms and the priests' rooms in Founders Hall. Previously the fathers had been scattered over the campus. The desire for uniform living quarters which would bring the community closer together, will be seen fulfilled in the residence hall. A nearness to the student life would be gained by the fathers and brothers with the new site.

The completion for the residence hall has been set for August 31, 1963. A cost estimate for the building was $231,000.

As for the next project on the program one can only guess. Right now indications point toward a new chapel.

'63 Shield To Be Large, Informal

by Padraic K. Ryan

Though some Michaelmen are unaware of it, next year's yearbook is underway.

Under the guidance of Ed Alger the new Shield indicates it will be bigger and better. The close-knit staff has already set out on its busy schedule. Even though it isn't the policy to divulge the new features in the yearbook, it can be expected that it will be "definitely larger" and "more informal" than in the past.

Saturday, in preparation for the task, Alger will go to Simmons College, Boston for the Keller Yearbook workshop.

The senior section of the yearbook will be completed in Dec.

On October 15 senior pictures will be taken. All seniors are asked to wear jackets.

The Shield staff for the 1963 yearbook is:

Editor - Ed Alger
Assistant Editor - Al Auclair
Art - Gred Cerrato & Dick Ingham
Business - Giulio Giuffrida & Tony Troy
Copy - Ed Creem & Dick Michaud
Photography - Art Kohler & Jim Nolan
Senior Section - Bob Hoehl & Bill Brennan

Moderator - Mr. John Donoghue

Jr. Weekend Committees Begin Planning For Event

Although May 3-5 seems like a long way off, the members of the various committees for Junior Weekend have already begun planning for what they term the "BEST Junior Weekend St. Michael's will ever have."

It was announced at the meeting of the Co-chairmen that if all the fund-raising activities work out, the Junior Class will be able to apply all the money they make toward providing "top name" attractions for every function during the Weekend.

The Finance Committee, under Co-chairmen Jim Salmon and Ed Roman, announced some of its plans to rais e the necessary funds. One of the primary fund raising events is to be the annual raffle. The winner this year will receive a week's trip for two, to the Bahama Islands, or the cash equivalent. Also, the student who sells the most tickets will receive a Stereo Phonograph. The plans for another fund-raising project are now being worked out. As soon as details are available, an announcement will be made in the MICHAELMAN.

The Co-chairmen, Mike Martin and Bill Jack, have already contacted seven booking agents in an effort to get the very best talent. In order to make this "THE BIG Weekend" of the year at St. Mike's' they feel that complete cooperation will be needed from the members of the various classes, for this is not just a Junior Class function, but a function for everyone.

The Committees:

Co-chairmen, Bill Jack
Mike Martin
Publicity, Tom McGrail
John Reid
P-Day, John Dorsey
Bill LeDoux

WHAT TO WEAR TILL THE DOCTOR COMES

Now that you have enrolled and paid your fees and bought your books and found your way around campus and learned to hate your roommate, it is time to turn to the most important aspect of college life. I refer, of course, to clothes.

What does Dame Fashion decree for the coming school year? (Incidentally, Dame Fashion is not, as many people believe, a fictitious character. She was a real Englishwoman who lived in Elizabethan times and, indeed, England is forever in her debt. During the invasion of the Spanish Armada, Dame Fashion—not yet a Dame but a mere, unlettered country lass named Moll Flanders—during the invasion, I say, of the Spanish Armada, this dauntless girl stood on the white cliffs of Dover and turned the tide of battle by rallying the drooping morale of the British fleet with this stirring poem of her own composition:

Don't be gutless,
Men of Britain.
Swing your cutlass,
We ain't quittin'.

Smash the Spanish,
Sink their boats,
Make 'em vanish,
Like a horse makes oats.

For Good Queen Bess,
Dear sirs, you gotta
Make a mess
Of that Armada.

You won't fail!
Knock 'em flat!
Then we'll drink ale
And stuff like that.

As a reward for these inspirational verses Queen Elizabeth dubbed her a Dame, made her Poet Laureate, and gave her the Western Hemisphere except Duluth. But this was not the extent of Dame Fashion's service to Queen and country. In 1589 she invented the laying hen, and she was awarded a lifetime pass to Chavez Ravine. But she was not to end her days in glory. In 1591, alas, she was arrested for overtime jousting and imprisoned for thirty years in a butt of malmsey. This later became known as Guy Fawkes Day.)

But I digress. Let us get back to campus fashions. Certain to be the rage again this year is the cardigan (which, curiously enough, was named after Lord Cardigan, who commanded the English fleet against the Spanish Armada. The sweater is only one product of this remarkable Briton's imagination. He also invented the glottal stop, the gerund, and the eyelid, without which winking, as we know it today, would not be possible).

But I digress. The cardigan, I say, will be back, which is, I believe, cause for rejoicing. Why? Because the cardigan has nice big pockets in which to carry your Marlboro Cigarettes—and that, good friends, is ample reason for celebration as all of you will agree who have enjoyed Marlboro's fine, comfortable, mellow flavor and Marlboro's filter. So why don't you slip into your cardigan and hie yourself to your tobacconist for some good Marlboros? They come in soft pack or flip-top box. Cardigans come in pink for girls and blue for boys.

© 1962 Max Shulman

Cardigans or pullovers—it's a matter of taste . . . And so is Marlboro a matter of taste—the best taste that can possibly be achieved by experienced growers and blenders—by science, diligence, and tender loving care. Try a pack.

Revived Dramatic Club Plans To Present Play Each Month

by Robert Rinaldi

Have you heard of Wolfe Mankewicz??

Well it is quite possible that you might, before the year is over. Conjecture has it that a play written by Mankewicz will be put on by the newly formed St. Michael's College Dramatic Club.

It has been four years since the glitter of greasepaint marked our regular school session. Since the Knights and Knaves gave up the ghost in 1958, the Summer Playhouse has been the sole supporter of theater arts at the college. With the advent of this new society, many plans are being made for its sound beginning and enduring status.

The credit for this reconstruction lies directly in the hands of the Dean of Studies, Father Morin, and Mr. Donald Rathgeb, who will assume the duties and problems of moderator.

Mr. Rathgeb, a graduate of Catholic University and formerly of the faculty of St. Mary's, Indiana, has vast experience in the field. He has been manager of the highly successful summer theater for a number of years and professes vital interest in the future of the new Club.

Mr. Rathgeb will be ably assisted by his wife, Joanne, who directed two of the summer productions. She has appeared in many off-Broadway productions, notably at the Phoenix Theater.

The initiation of the Dramatic Club has been greeted with a high degree of enthusiasm.

The Club Status Committee of the Student Forum has been informed of the plans and a proposed Constitution drawn up.

Under the rules of the Forum, the Dramatic Club may enter as a Class "C" Club. This system requires any club or society to prove itself in worth and stability before it attains a budget and "A" or "B" classification.

Production plans provide for the formation of a drama workshop with a tentative schedule of one play a month. These performances will be admission-free and all the faculty and students of the college are invited.

In the interests of quality performance, critics from the Burlington area will also be included.

A major production is planned for the spring of '63. This is foreseen as the most effective step towards a truly active organization. If interest determines success, the Dramatic Club seems assured of a permanent place on campus.

For students who wish to participate, here is a direct quote from the proposed Constitution, "The organization shall be so named the St. Michael's College Dramatic Club and shall be open to any student matriculating at St. Michael's College. It is further stipulated that any student so desirous of joining the Club shall proffer enough interest and ability to be a constructive asset."

And also from the Constitution, "The aim of the Dramatic Club is to provide for these students, a means of enhancing their abilities and experience in this projected field and to add to the stature of St. Michael's College as an asset to its student activity."

Semiannual Blood Drive Oct. 29; Goal: 185 Pints

by Bill Troy

Attention, all red-blooded Michaelmen! This article may be of vital importance to you.

However, if your blood is of any other color, you may disregard the following.

On October 29, an organization known the world over, will be visiting our campus. The members have expressed a desire to see every Michaelman they can while they are here, so if you are interested, stop by Austin Hall between the hours of 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. You will be able to meet and talk to one of these people and, what's more, free coffee and donuts will be served.

Yes, St. Michael's is again holding its semiannual blood drive. It will be open to all St. Michael's College students who are 18 years and over.

If you are under 21, you should have written permission from your parents. If he has not already done so, a member of the Pre-Medical Society will be knocking on your door with the yellow slips which have to be signed. After this has been completed, they will return with a white card on which you can put the time(s) you are available. You will then bring this whole deal to Austin Hall with you when it is time for your appointment.

By the way, the excuse that you need all the blood you have for the next day's intramural football game is no longer valid, as the blood drawing is also intramural in that the class which contributes the greatest amount will receive a proportionate number of points.

This year's goal is 185 pints. Compared with 1000 students, that works out to about one pint per 5.4 students. It is your duty to remind every 5.4th person you see on campus that he is supposed to give blood. Ico

Oh, and one more pint; sorry, but only one to a customer or we'll start losing money on the coffee-and-donuts end of the deal.

P.S. If you give, you and members of your family may get blood free, if it is needed while you are a student here.

Choir Travels To Shrine For Concert

by Jim McMahon

On Sunday, September 30, the St. Michael's College Choir traveled to Isle La Motte, the famous Edmundite shrine, in honor of St. Anne, located 40 miles north on Lake Champlain. It sang the first concert of what promises to be a fine year during which the choir will continue to perfect its understanding and presentation of sacred music.

The choir is presently rehearsing a non-liturgical Mass by Virgil Thomson, which calls for a percussion accompaniment. This Mass will be presented in concert, with the necessary drums and other percussion instruments asked for in the score. The piece bears resemblances to the Missa Luba, which was heard on WSSE last year.

The tape recording which the choir made last year will be broadcast on the nationwide "Hour of the Crucified" some Sunday this fall.

Freshman Class Includes Tribesman From Kenya

by Bob Lilly

Many Americans are mistaken in their views of Africa. This is one of the opinions of Philip Thiuri, a native of Kenya, who is studying at St. Michael's College.

Very popular with the members of the Freshman Class, Phil resides on the third floor of Founders' Hall and plans to major in Economics.

Born in Myri in Kenya, he later moved to the capital city, Nairobi. His home is at the foot of Mount Kenya, 6,000 feet above sea level and 40 miles from the Equator. Mount Kenya is the highest mountain, with its summit reaching a height of 17,040 feet.

Philip is a member of the Akikuyu Tribe, the largest in his country, which has 18 other major tribes and many smaller ones.

He learned of St. Michael's through the United States Information Service in Kenya and a missionary priest highly recommended the school to him.

To be able to come to college in America, Philip had to be picked from a great number of applicants, be declared eligible and then pass a thorough screening that included written interviews and personal interviews. After he had been accepted, he was sent to Tanganyika, where he went to classes to orientate him about the U.S.

He arrived in New York on September 13, and traveled to Burlington by airplane. He is a scholarship student at St. Michael's and would like to go on for his Master's Degree upon graduation.

BURNING SPEARS

Talking of his native country - he proudly calls Kenya "The Country of Burning Spears" - he mentioned that it is a member of the British Commonwealth that has been promised independance in 1963. Nairobi, the capital city, has a population of 150,000, and the entire nation has 8,000,000 inhabitants.

The largest industry in Kenya is coffee, but tea, puyrethrum (an insecticide), and canned fruits are also exported. Well-paved roads in the central portion of the country, a modern airport and seaport, and a railroad system makes transportation of goods and people easy and fast.

There are four national parks in Kenya, where all types of wild animals graze and hunt without fear of hunters of the human kind.

NO SNOW?

On the political side, there are two parties in Kenya with a governor appointed by the Queen of England. It is a country of dedicated people striving for freedom as their slogan, Uhura Na Umoja, shows. Translated, this means Freedom and Unity, coincidentally the same legend that appears on the Vermont coat of arms.

So far, he likes St. Michael's and the state of Vermont, but he hastened to add that he has yet to see any snow, other than what glistened from Mount Mansfield, last week.

English Club Is Open To All

by Kirk R. Weixel

Dr. Edward F. Murphy, Associate Professor of English and Speech at St. Michael's, and moderator of the English Club, announced that he was "very much pleased with the good representation from students who are not English majors" at the first club meeting this year.

The club is stressing the fact that all students, regardless of their concentration, are welcome to join. As Dr. Murphy stated: "It is almost inconceivable to me that some aspect of the club wouldn't appeal to everyone." The reason for such a statement is that members are not subject to English in general, but can delve into the field in which they are most interested.

The club is broken into three main divisions, with the entire English faculty giving their utmost support. The divisions are:

Poetry, headed by Mr. John Engels;

Fiction, headed by Mr. J. Francis Stewart and Mr. Bernard M. Gore;

Drama, with Mr. Donald Rathgeb as its instructor.

These faculty members wish to stress that they are not running the club; the students are. Their role is guidance, instruction, and organizing - when needed.

Dr. Edward F. Murphy

SPECIALISTS HELP

In the Poetry department, not only will famous poets be discussed, but poetry submitted by the students will be appraised and analyzed. Mr. Gore, working in connection with The Quest, St. Michael's student literary magazine, will aid students who show promise in fiction writing.

Mr. Stewart, an authority on Contemporary Liturature, will explain prominent authors and their works.

Mr. Rathgeb, assistant professor of Drama at St. Michael's, will discuss and analyze plays and playwrights. Anyone interested in writing plays, would also be under the direction of Mr. Rathgeb. Dr. Murphy and Mr. McGinnis will give help where and when it is needed.

Since the English Club falls in the Class "B" status group this year, it has the opportunity of drawing money from the Student Forum. The club hopes to obtain at least one lecturer.

Rudolph Stoeckel, president of the club, is planning now to distribute trophy awards to the best presentations in the three major fields, the idea being to encourage those within the club to submit examples of their writing ability.

Dr. Murphy personally invites anyone interested in writing or literary discussion to attend the next meeting.

MARS Station To Again Hold Ham Instructions

by Norman Parrow

The first meeting of MARS, (Military Affiliate Radio System), was held on September 30, 1962. This is the 4th year that this organization has been active on campus.

The purpose of MARS is to back up the Air Force communication system in the event of a national emergency and to aid communications in the event of a local disaster.

On the campus of St. Michael's College MARS serves as a recreational facility for the 20 members of its staff. The organization is open to all students of the college who are interested in the field of Ham radio, whether they are members of ROTC or not.

In its short life on campus, the MARS organization has performed many outstanding feats. Among these are: contacting some 40 countries all over the world, e.g. Australia, Malta, and Russia. The MARS organization made contact with the U.S.S. Randolph while the ship was on its way to pick up Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, U.S.M.C., after his orbital flight of the world.

Serving his second year in the position as Commander is senior Capt. William J. Crennan; Administration Officer, junior Carlton F. Vogt; Operations Officer, sophomore Wendell Geng; and Training Officer, sophomore James Curley.

OFFERS CLASSES

After three years of hard work, the campus MARS station has received the W.A.S. award. This award is only given to those organizations who have contacted all of the states of the U.S.A. This award generally takes a Ham radio man 30 years to accomplish its great demands.

Anyone interested in the field of Ham radio is urged to contact one of the staff members about information on the organization.

There will be classes offered for those who are interested in obtaining Ham radio licenses. These classe s will start on Sunday night, October 7, 1962, with the cooperation of William Deyo, Language lab technician.

Juniors Beat Seniors 16-12 In Football

by "Chick" Smith

Lead by quarterback Mickey Moughan, the juniors outlasted the seniors in the first inter-class football game by a score of 16-12.

The seniors were the first to chalk up a tally with a Morgan to Hinsenkamp pass. The juniors bounced back as reliable Moughan threw a beautiful pass to Dick Moyen. With a successful conversion, the juniors led 7-6.

The juniors added two more points to their score when they caught Morgan in the end zone for a safety. The juniors scored again on a Moughan to Buczak pass.

In the fourth quarter Morgan tossed a short pass to Dick Powers, who scampered to the end zone for the final tally of the game. It was not enough, for the juniors prevailed 16-12.

Strong defense was the prevailing factor in the second inter-class game which pitted the seniors against the sophomores. After three periods of scoreless ball the seniors squeezed out a 6-0 victory.

Both teams showed strong, aggressive lines which was a continual hinderance to quarterbacks McGee and Kliminski. Their receivers were well covered, making it difficult to find the mark.

The only score came midway in the final period when senior quarterback Bob McGee ran up the middle of the line for a 50 yard score. This lone touchdown was too much for the sophomores to overcome.

Basketball Season Opens Dec. 1 Away; Purple Knights Meet Colby In Opener

by Luis A. Villares

The Purple Knights, perennial Vermont Basketball Champions, will open their 1962-63 season at Colby, December 1. The 22-game season schedule has been released by Athletic Director and head basketball coach, George "Doc" Jacobs.

Nine home games have been scheduled.

The Knights, who posted a 9-10 season (9-8 NCAA) last year, will play their first home game Dec. 4 against Norwich in the first State-clash.

Holy Cross and Stonehill, not on the schedule last year, are returning while the University of Hartford will be a newcomer to battle St. Michael's. The Saints will participate at the Mrine Tournament at Camp LeJeune, N.C. for the first time.

Seven lettermen and five sophomores will comprise this year's Knight squad. Practice is scheduled to begin October 15, under Coach "Doc" Jacobs.

The Colby game will be one of the toughest opening contests the Knights ever have had. Last year St. Michael's squeezed by the Mules with a 70-69 victory against them at home. Colby, one of the best New England small college teams, last season lost 11 games by less than 3 points. Their last year's freshman team looked outstanding and since Coach Lee Williams is generally considered a "miracle worker", the Knights will be facing a strong opponent.

KASHETA

Norwich, last year's state champions with St. Michael's, is rebuilding under Coach Bob Brannum, former Boston Celtics reat. The Cadets' hopes are centered on Fran Kasheta, top New England scorer last season. The Saints won the first game 76-58 while yielding the second 70-67 when Kasheta hit with three seconds left.

Although Holy Cross lost the services of All-American and all-time record holder Jack Foley, they are counting heavily on sophomore Lloyd Hinchey to be the fifth starter on the team. All other starting hoopers are back. They open the season against A.I.C. whom St. Michael's also plays.

The Knights should prove too powerful against Middlebury. Last year the Knights outscored them 82-69.

Adelphi, who defeated the Knights last year 89-80, will present a sophomore team centered on 6'5" backcourtman Bill Goldstein.

The Marine Tournament at Camp LeJeune, N.C., should prove a challenge for the Purple Knights. Some of the top small colleges including Mt. St. Mary's are expected to enter the tournament. The Knights have entered the Marine tourney at Quantico several times but LeJeune is new.

ST. ANSELM'S STRONG

University of Hartford has a promising basketball team. They are newcomers to big-time small-college basketball.

St. Anselm's, a pre-season favorite in New England, has every starter back. St. Anselm's defeated the Saints in their last contest.

Northeastern, another pre-season favorite, has lost captain Ward Sears, one of the leading rebounders in the Boston area. The Saints wer e outscored by 11 points last year.

Graduation claimed LeMoyne's ace scorer, Bill Stanley, but the Dolphins have the rest of the team returning. The Saints will play the Dolphins on a Sunday for the first time in many years. The Knights edged them 64-62 last year in an overtime thriller.

Always a tough opponent, Assumption came on the short end of a 57-52 clash which accounted for "Doc" Jacobs' 200th victory.

BECTON REBOUNDING

UVM Catamounts will have Benny Becton back. UVM will go as Becton goes. All other starters are back. The Knights edged them twice last year 75-73 and 66-61.

Stonehill is another up-an-coming basketball power in the East.

A.I.C. was outscored by the Saints, 63-57. However, this could be the year for Coach Bill Callahan and his team.

St. Lawrence has everybody back. They should prove a hard team as the seniors on the Knights' can attest. Last year the Knights snapped a five game winning streak with a 76-70 victory over the Saints.

Merrimack has lost the services of their top scorer, Roger Damphouse. The Knights trounced Merrimack 91-60 for the Saints' first win of the season last year.

N.Y.A.C. has always been a tough opponent for St, Michael's, but a good late season test before any tourney bids which the Knights are accustomed to getting.

Banks Takes Lead In Golf

Don Banks with a 79 is leading the golf squad hopefuls who will represent SMC at two tournaments this month. Mike Tranghese, Marty King and Tom Colangelo currently round out the top four with several other squad members still slated to complete their rounds at the Burlington Country Club for tournaments at Dartmouth and at Montreal.

PASSING: John Higgins (left) makes a pass to Bob Tobin (right) while a St. Lawrence opponent anticipates the move. The Larries downed the Knights 2-1 for the first defeat.

SM Bows To St. Lawrence 2-1

by Luis A. Villares

St. Michael's varsity squad suffered its first loss of the season when the Michaelmen booters were downed 2-1 by St. Lawrence University Monday afternoon at a home game.

Several bad breaks caused the Michaelman squad its defeat. In a play in front of the St. Lawrence goal during the first period, one of the Michaelmen soccermen, trying to push the ball into the hands of goalie Richard Endrelunas actually deflected the ball from the goalie's hand, leading to the Larries' first score at 10:15.

After the halftime intermission, the Michaelmen returned to the field anxious to overcome the deficit. Action was a lot faster as the Knights tried unsuccessfully to score the tying goal.

During the third period the Larries made it 2-0 after Art Guertsen of St. Lawrence scored on a penalty kick at 11:55.

Down in score, but high in spirits, the kicking Knights came back with a goal by sophomore John Davidson in 16:58 of the third period.

The goal further encouraged the determined Knights. St. Michael's was able to penetrate deep into Larry territory, but a sturdy defense prevented the Knights from scoring again.

The fourth period saw the Knights try several good shots at the goal which either missed the goal by a few feet or were stopped by St. Lawrence's goalie, Dave Fletcher.

The defeat evened the Knights' standing for the season at 1-1. St. Michael's beat Plattsburgh, 2-0, at home, in the season opener.

The victory gave St. Lawrence a 2-0 record for the season. They had defeated Clarkson Tech 5-1 before clashing with St. Michael's.

St. Michael's College soccer team will meet its first Canadian opponent Saturday (6) when the Knights entertain Sir George Williams University of Montreal.

The home game is scheduled for 2 p.m.

The soccermen will play the first game in the New England Intercollegiate League Wednesday (10) when the Norwich cadets travel to the Purple field for the contest.
